Thirty people attended the get-together with an enjoyable afternoon. The classmates were from: Phoenix, Omaha, Columbus, Grand Island, Norfolk, Scottsbluff, Phillips, Primrose, Belgrade and Cedar Rapids.

Class of 1935 Meet At Primrose's

In recognition of the 45th anniversary as graduates of Cedar Rapids High School, the class of 1935 put out an all-points bulletin encouraging members to attend the Alumni gathering in 1980.

Of the 26 members of the class, death has claimed eight. Present for the reunion were eight classmates and one member who was a classmate thru junior year.

A pre-supper get-together was held at the home of Mary Homan Primrose and her husband, Art. Those attending were: Wilbur Keith and his wife, Lillian, from Seattle, Wash.; Dave Foreman and his wife, Glorinda, of Ensign, Kans.; Ruth Cox Patterson, McFarland, Calif.; Roberta McManigal Wages of West Bend, Ark.; Charles Smith of Grand Island; Don Kennedy and wife, Veronica, of Greeley; Bud Towey and wife, Eileen, Cedar Rapids; and Bessie Cain Melland and husband, Stan, of Grand Island.

Other guests were: Helen VanDeWalle Sullivan of Rockville, NE., and Pat Darling of Omaha.

Class of 1940 Meet At Farmer's

St. Anthony's Class of 1930 Gather

Graduates of the class of 1930 of St. Anthony's Catholic High School met Sunday afternoon, August 3, 1980, at the home of Theresa Goering for a get-together. The afternoon was spent socially. All had attended the Alumni Banquet at St. Anthony's Parish Center.

Present were Helen and Irene Lickhus of California; Clarence VanDeWalle of Ravenna, NE.; Dorothy McCurdy Ring, of Iowa; Madlina Jacobi, Albion; and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Loeffler.

Neighbors Meet At High School Alumni

When asked for those who had come the farthest, it was determined that two men, Tracy Arbutnot, class of 1930, and Wilbur S. Keith, class of 1935, had come the farthest. They were both from Seattle, Washington. In the course of conversation and much to the amazement of the two men, it was discovered that they only lived 3 blocks apart. Just think after traveling over 1600 miles, you meet a neighbor you have lived near for years.

It's A Small World, Isn't It??

School News

Cedar Rapids High School has returned to the Cedar Valley Conference, with teams from Arcadia, Etba, Greeley, North Loup-Scottia, Spading Academy, and Wolbach. The girls basketball ball team won the conference championship. The music students received awards for the best band and the best choral group.

The artwork in the new gymnasium has received much publicity over the past year. Articles have featured the huge murals in the Grand Island Independent, the Omaha World Herald, and on KOLN-TV. The gymnasium walls are covered with murals depicting the activities of the school. The swimming pool building was also decorated this year. Len Homan, class of '60, is the art teacher of these talented seniors.

In Appreciation

The Cedar Rapids High School Alumni Association wishes to express their appreciation to the ladies of St. Anthony's Altar Society for their continued cooperation which has contributed much to the success of the alumni gatherings.

We appreciate the meals served by the Society and the use of the Parish Center which, very adequately and comfortably, serves the requirements for our Alumni reunions.
